5 Are you a successor to another organization?

Yes No

Answer "Yes" if you have taken or will take over the activities of another organization, you took over 25% or more of the fair market value of the net assets of another organization, or you were established upon the conversion of an organization from for-profit to nonprofit status. If "Yes," complete Schedule G.

Part III Required Provisions in Your Organizing Document

Part III helps ensure that, when you submit this application, your organizing document contains the required provisions to meet the organizational test under section 501(c)(3).

If you cannot check "Yes" in both Lines 1 and 2, your organizing document does not meet the organizational test. DO NOT file this application until you have amended your organizing document. Remember to upload your original and amended organizing documents at the end of this form

1 Section 501(c)(3) requires that your organizing document limit your purposes to one or more exempt purposes within section 501(c)(3), such as charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes.

The following is an example of an acceptable purpose clause: The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Does your organizing document meet this requirement?

No

1a State specifically where your organizing document meets this requirement, such as a reference to a particular article or section in your organizing document (Page/Article/Paragraph):

Document 1, Page 1, Article III, Paragraph 4.

2 Section 501(c)(3) requires that your organizing document provide that upon dissolution, your remaining assets be used exclusively for section 501(c)(3) exempt purposes, such as charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes. Depending on your entity type and the state in which you are formed, this requirement may be satisfied by operation of state law.

The following is an example of an acceptable dissolution clause: Upon the dissolution of this organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

Does your organizing document meet this requirement?

Part IV Your Activities

1 Describe completely and in detail your past, present, and planned activities. Do not refer to or repeat the purposes in your organizing document.

For each past, present, or planned activity, include information that answers the following questions:

- a. What is the activity?
- b. Who conducts the activity?
- c. Where is the activity conducted?
- d. What percentage of your total time is allocated to the activity?
- e. How is the activity funded (for example, donations, fees, etc.) and what percentage of your overall expenses is allocated to this activity?
- f. How does the activity further your exempt purposes?
- a. We perform community outreach to the neighborhoods in our area to let them know what is happening in the Diridon Station Area. There is over $10B worth of development projects that will be ongoing over the next 30 years. The projects include Google Downtown West ($10B, 7M square feet of new commercial space), Diridon Station Project ($4B, new transit station), Bay Area Rapid Transit expansion to San Jose ($4B), California High-Speed Rail to Diridon Station (over $100B), and thousands of new residential units. We have created a website and mobile app that will allow users to find out what is going on. This level of outreach is needed for the neighborhoods and stakeholders. In addition, we hold community meetings with the various groups to work through coordination issues from all the development activity happening nearby. We are coordinating a survey of the Gardner neighborhood about the resources needed at the Gardner Community Center. We are working with San Jose State University, County of Santa Clara, City of San Jose, etc. to mobilize resources for the community during COVID. We discuss the impacts of large-scale development adjacent to single family neighborhoods. We discuss the development options and the ability for the neighborhoods to provide comments to the various development plans.
- b. Our organization conducts the activity in conjunction with our partnering stakeholders. The community and various stakeholders participate in these activities.
- c. The activity is conducted in the neighborhoods, which include Delmas Park neighborhood, Shasta Hanchett Park neighborhood, Hannah Gregory neighborhood, Gardner neighborhood, Del Monte neighborhood, and Gregory Plaza neighborhood. Activity is also conducted virtually via ZOOM meetings.
- d. The organization spends 100 per cent of its time and resources on our activities. The organization is mission focused and only meets to work on these activities
- e. The organization is 100 per cent funded by donations, and 100 per cent of our expenses is allocated to the activity.
- f. The exempt purpose of our organization is education of the public about ongoing development and city government services, and this purpose is the sole focus of our activity.

Part VII Foundation Classification

Part VII is designed to classify you as an organization that is either a private foundation or a public charity. Public charity classification is a more favorable tax status than private foundation classification. If you are a private foundation, this part will further determine whether you are a private operating foundation.

	Sele	ect the foundation classification you are requesting from the list below.
		You are described in 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) as an organization that receives a substantial part of its financial support in the form of contributions from publicly supported organizations, from a governmental unit, or from the general public.
		You are described in 509(a)(2) as an organization that normally receives not more than one-third of its financial support from gross investment income and receives more than one-third of its financial support from contributions, membership fees, and gross receipts from activities related to its exempt functions (subject to certain exceptions).
		You are described in 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i) as a church or a convention or association of churches. Complete Schedule A.
		You are described in 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) as a school. Complete Schedule B.
		You are described in 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iii) as a hospital, a cooperative hospital service organization, or a medical research organization operated in conjunction with a hospital. Complete Schedule C.
		You are described in $509(a)(1)$ and $170(b)(1)(A)(iv)$ as an organization operated for the benefit of a college or university that is owned or operated by a governmental unit.
		You are described in 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ix) as an agricultural research organization directly engaged in the continuous active conduct of agricultural research in conjunction with a college or university.
		You are described in 509(a)(3) as an organization supporting either one or more organizations described in 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) or a publicly supported section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) organization. Complete Schedule D.
		You are described in 509(a)(4) as an organization organized and operated exclusively for testing for public safety.
		You are a publicly supported organization and would like the IRS to decide your correct classification.
		You are a private foundation.
а	арр	a private foundation, section 508(e) requires special provisions in your organizing document in addition to those that by to all organizations described in section 501(c)(3). Check this box to confirm that your organizing document udes these provisions or you rely on state law.
